

"Four" Your Information

About Addison's 4th Grade

Week of March 9 – 13, 2020

Reading & Language Arts

In writing, students will revise their drafts and finalize their narrative essays. They will be tested on mythology. Then, begin the unit on comparing 2 texts on the same topic. Students will have a spelling and vocabulary test on Friday with the unit 6 words.

AC Reading & Language Arts

- Continue Walk Two Moons novel study
- Vocabulary workshop vocab test Tuesday. Spelling test on the same words Friday.
- Complete informational writing on chosen National Park by Friday.
- Upcoming: Begin studying Greek myth allusions.

Math

We will continue to revise and practice addition and subtraction of mixed numbers and will apply this skill through word problems and exemplars. Students will be quizzed on this standard this week. After that, we will begin multiplying fractions by whole numbers. We also continue to review skills through our weekly spiral review of math concepts.

AC Math

We will continue to work with decimals. We will relate them to fractions, compare and round, and use all 4 operations with decimals.

Science/Social Studies

Students have been industriously working on their group presentations. They should be finished with projects by Monday. Groups will begin presenting their project to the class on Monday, if they haven't already. The open-note test over the Louisiana Purchase, Lewis & Clark, and War of 1812 will be on Tuesday. The test on the Texas/Mexican War, and The Trail of Tears will be on Friday. Students should be studying their social studies journal notes each night.

Upcoming Dates

March 10 – Zaxby's night

March 13 – AESF Mother/Son dance

March 21 – Garden clean up (8am – noon)

March 27 – 4th & 5th grade dance

Reminders!

End of unit tests will be announced by each teacher several days before the test is given. This should be written in your child's agenda. Please check it daily.

Report cards will not be sent home. You will be able to see them in Parent Vue. If you do not have a login, please stop by the front office in person.